Last month I watched a show about public event with my parents on TV. It was very interesting. This festival based on fairy tale.

This festival took place in Nepal and continued for two days.

Many people were involved on the festival. People saw a parade and a candlelit procession. Craftsmen sold paintings and handicrafts.

Also they took a guided tour of the magnificent temples. It ~~was~~ looked impressive.

By the way, tourists bought some beautiful souvenirs.

It was an exciting event and in the end some people took gifts because they were winners of the special games. All the people enjoyed how it was celebrated.
